

Seawolf Hall of Fame

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Seawolf Hall of Fame shall be to identify and honor in a permanent manner those individuals who have achieved excellence in athletics at the University of Alaska Anchorage and others who have distinguished themselves by virtue of exemplary contributions to the advancement of athletics at the University of Alaska Anchorage.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR NOMINATION

An athlete becomes eligible for nomination 10 years following the date of his/her last competition at UAA.

- The athlete will have earned a minimum of two varsity letters in one sport, one letter in two sports or brought recognition to UAA by his/her athletic accomplishments.
- An outstanding career as an athlete must be followed by an exemplary life of community service and a career in the individual's profession or occupation, which reflects credit to the person, UAA and society.
- Graduation and/or exemplary academic achievement would be considered a desirable qualification.

A coach, faculty or other staff member becomes eligible for nomination five years after leaving university service. There must be evidence of an outstanding career and the candidate must have had a direct and significant impact on UAA athletics.

A University of Alaska Anchorage athletic team becomes eligible for nomination ten years after the season for which it is being nominated. A team must have brought national recognition to the University of Alaska Anchorage. The team must have graduated from UAA at a rate not less than 50%.

An extraordinary contribution by someone other than a student-athlete, coach, faculty or staff member that results in a significant benefit or reflects great credit to UAA athletics.

No more than five individuals and one team will be selected for induction each year.

There is no limit to the number of times a person or team may be nominated. However, nominations are held for three years so that in the case that someone is not inducted after the first nomination, it will be reviewed for the next two years.

No member, while serving on the selection committee, shall be eligible for selection.
